Newsletter

#6 of many

Thanks to...

...All individuals who left $1.00 and $2.00 donations at all of our past events.

...All of the members who helped staff the dance held on April 13th at Park Lodge. Special thanks to the bar staff, ticket sales, the door staff, and of course the clean-up crew.

...A special thanks to Jim Reynolds for writing a fine article in the June edition of Canadian Biker.

...Drew Burns of the Commodore Ballroom for allowing A.I.M. members free admittance on Friday, May 3, 1985.

...Thanks to Bill McNamara for the T-shirt exposure on 84 Dan in the July issue of Canadian Biker Magazine.

DONATIONS

...Mark Taylor Everett, WA	$ 3.72
...Blaine Spencer	$ 5.00
...Hell's Angels M/C	$100.00
...Pete Gutheridge Yakima, WA	$ 3.40
...Ray Matthews Yakima, WA	$ 3.40

Assistance given to...

...Jamie Robin Morrison, re: Moral support.

...Gabe Hill, re: Legal Aid.

...Gregory Shayn Moritz, re: Legal counsel and moral support.

...Randy Baceda, re Legal counsel and moral support.

...Rick Leadbeater, re: Moral support and Legal Aid.

... Just an update on the American version (Re: the above bumper sticker) of A.I.M. They have approx. 1200 people signed up and have a computer set up with vital info on each member, i.e. blood type, next of kin, etc. The computer also has a road hazard program, that prints out letters to appropriate municipalities advising them of hazardous roads, and to advise them to have the necessary road repairs made.
